

Johnny Davis is the star of the outfield whose hitting and fielding have made him a favorite with Newark fans. Davis swings a bat with authority at the plate and has been tearing down the fences in parks throughout the circuit.

The Eagles boast of a formidable pitching staff with such Leon Day, speed ball artist and rated the best pitcher in colored baseball today heading the list. Len Hooker, another right hander, has a record of seven league victories against one defeat and is enjoying his best year on the mound. Jimmie Hill and Fred Hopgood are the two southpaws on the staff who possess a fine assortment of curves and a blazing fast ball. Jim Elam and Bob Williams complete the list of pitchers and both are hurling their first year of league ball.

Leon Ruffin handles the slants of these hurlers behind the plate and enjoys the reputation of possessing the best throwing arm in the game. Ruffin has also been hitting the ball at a terrific pace and is noted for his ability to detect the weakness of opposing batters.

One of the features of the Eagles play this season has been their speed on the bases. Manager Mule Suttles has them practically running away with games on the bases. The team has stolen 8 bases in the last two games which shows the daring and speed of this team that has captivated the imagination of Newark baseball fans.